

Stephanie Erwin is leading the working group and strategy for the Circular Economy at the American Sustainable Business Network. Stephanie is a serial entrepreneur and strategist focused on designing and scaling circular and sustainable systems after years of working in the banking, consumer goods, and nonprofit sectors. Stephanie holds an MBA in Sustainability specializing in Circular Value Chain and Impact Finance as well as an MS certificate in Environmental Policy from Bard College. Stephanie also teaches Personal Leadership Development in Sustainability and Energy Justice and Entrepreneurship as a co-instructor with the Bard MBA in Sustainability Program.